CA MALDIVES
JOURNAL

INTRODUCTION

The CA Maldives Journal is a platform dedicated to publishing insightful content that enhances knowledge in accounting, auditing, finance, and other related fields within the Maldives. We aim to provide an opportunity to feature your work and to gain recognition as a journal contributor. We invite interested individuals to register as authors and contribute articles to the journal. Our Authors Register aims to build a diverse pool of contributors committed to professional development through their writing.

WHO CAN BE A REGISTERED AUTHOR?

The CA Maldives Journal follows an open registration policy, welcoming all individuals interested in contributing as an author. We look forward to collaborating with authors who are dedicated to producing original and professional work.

TOPICS OF FOCUS

- Accounting and Finance
- Audit and Assurance
- Taxation
- ESG
- Valuation

- Capital Markets
- Fintech
- Economics
- Banking and Financial Services
- Other related fields

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Below are the general submission guidelines, including the formatting requirements that authors must follow when submitting their articles.

GENERAL SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Topics must be relevant to Accounting, Finance, Tax, Business, Assurance, Management, Advisory, Economics, or related fields.
- Submissions must be original and unpublished elsewhere. Authors are solely responsible for the accuracy and originality of their submissions.
- Writing must be clear, concise, and grammatically correct.
- Images must be public domain or licensed for commercial use.
- Content must be technically accurate and well-founded.
- Language: English.
- All articles or research papers which exceed 500 words will require a summary to be submitted together with the submission of your article.

FORMATTING GUIDELINES

- Submit in Word (docx) format.
- Word limit: 500 - 2,500 words.
- Font: Times New Roman, 12-point.
- Spacing: Single-spaced
- Must include the author's name and contact details on the first page before the content.
- Must include a clear and coherent title, ideally not exceeding 10 words.
- Sub-headings, if any, should preferably not be more than 20 words.
- Must provide citations for all sources, quotes, and data.
- Must use APA style (latest edition) for all citations.

REVIEW PROCESS

1. REGISTER

You will be required to register as an author via the application form, to submit an article.

2. SUBMIT

Submit your articles online. If your article exceeds 500 words, you will be required to submit a summary together with the submission of your article.

3. INITIAL SCREENING

The summary or the article submitted will be initially screened to ensure the document meets the submission guidelines.

4. REVIEWING

Your article will be reviewed to see if it fits with the aims and scope of the journal.

5. DECISION

Once the review is completed, one of the following decisions will be made.

1. Accept
2. Accept with minor revisions
3. Reject

Author will be notified about the decision.

IMPORTANT LINKS

- Authors Registration Form
- Article Submission Form
- Terms and Conditions
- Privacy Policy